FIRST DAMROSCH CONCERT AT THE NEW THEATRE.

Production of a New Symphonic Poem by Debut of Fellx Berber, Violinist -Beethoven's "Erolea" Also Played.

The programme consisted of Beethoven's will be able to play on Monday. "Erojea" symphony, the Brahms violi n concerto, and a symphonic poem ensolo performer was Prof. Felix Perber, a German violinist, who made his first appearance before an American audience. William Burress was engaged vesterday.

The familiar symphony served to reacquaint the patrons of the Symphony Society's concerts with the excellent qualities of the orchestra. It is no particular pleasure to note once again that the acoustics of the New Theatre are not more at the Colony Club for Miss Ellen.

William Burress was engaged vesterday at least not a week or so.

Sprudelfee "Mr. Burress will create the part of Prince Nepamuk Mrs. George C. Riggs (Kate Douglas Wiggin) gave a luncheon yesterday aftermoon at the Colony Club for Miss Ellen.

On the other hand there was a certain intimate recognition of details in personance which cannot be obtained in a larger auditorium. If the New Theatre in unfavorable to sonorous mass effects, it is by no means wholly hostile to a treatment of orchestral detail not unlike between Henry B. Harris and David Belasco, whereby following the engageavoided search after prodigious fortes and astonishing contrasts in dynamics, but kept his cathe reading on a moderate plane. There was a digained reserve about it, and it challenged admiration by the finish of the orchestral execution Prof. Berber disclosed himself as an artist of high ideals and respectable attainments. He is a voiolinist who will receive the consideration of serious music Bassett, Fred. lovers wherever he goes. His tone may be large and brilliant when heard in an Eva auditorium where size and brilliance are possible. At any rate it is of good quality. Said" and has some smoothness and purity to commend it Mr Berber's technic is on pare the whole sound and certain. His violin school is solid without being deficient in Tobin elan and grace. At any rate his performance of the

Brahms concerto was one to call for symtraits. It was not without temperament and showed the results of careful study It was the reading of a player who had no bag of tricks to open, but who relied upon straightforward playing and an understanding of the composition

William Wallace is an Englishman, and it would be interesting to know whether a certain masterly short story of Robert Louis Stevenson sent him rollicking into the deviltries and staggering fancies of the French poet. Or perhaps it was that extraordinary "mad glad sad bad brother" line of Swinburne that did it. At any rate there is the symphonic poem and the programme notes tell us that the score larded all over with quotations from Villon's works and with other interesting

The first inscription tells us that the composer thought of Villon as a "poor scholar of this university," as Stevenson makes him say. Then comes a remark that he was a "good rogue" Northead Willond Willond Willond Willond that he was a "good rogue." Next an inanswer is to the taverns and the girlse ampton: Then comes a ballade of ladies of the Mr and Mrs 6. 7 Maxwell Mrs E. D. olden time, which is followed by a ballade Carke, A. H. Selwyn, George E. Vail, Mr. to Our Lady made at the request of Villon's mother.

Taubert. Debussy and other composers. if Estimate there will be a division in that She was heard by a large audience, which applauded her in the most friendly fashion. Mrs. Percy has a serviceable Theorem Interpretation of the most friendly independent subway to compete with the existing interpropulation. was marred by a want of clearness in her tones and by slovenliness in her colorature. Her voice improved in condition as the evening advanced, but no large amount of satisfaction could be obtained from her delivery from such songs as Haydn's "With Verdure Old" and Rameaux's "Ressignois Amoreux."

Sonally of the opinion that new extensions of the subway system should be made part of the present underground lines for the reason that a separately operated subway will mean the cost of double fares to many of those who will use the new the proper East Side section of the city.

But although Mayor Gaynor would be to see a single fare subway system.

THE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA SENS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS. IMMORAL PLAYS DON'T LAST E. H. Sothern Meets With Accident, No. Serious Miss Russell's New Play.

E. H. Sothern, who is now rehearsing 'Macbeth' with Miss Julia Marlowe and the members of their company, preparatory to the opening of the Sothern-Maran English Composer, William Wallace lowe season in New Haven on Monday evening, had his hand hurt in the rehearsal at the Lyric Theatre yesterday afternoon. In the fight between Mac-The first concert of the season of the beth and Macduff he and Frederick Lewis New York Symphony Society took place | met in a reheareal encounter. Mr. Lewis's

Miss Annie Russell returned to New York yesterday from her summer home in titled "Villon," by William Wallace. The Maine. She is to begin rehearsals next ideal for instrumental re-formance, but it must be said in explanation of the apparent want of brilliancy in the tone of the orchestra.

On the other hand there was a certain on the other hand there was a certain of the orchestra.

Thomas Jefferson makes his first New Monday evening Josephine Victor will court, Samuel Klawans, Walter S. Howard. Jeannette Ferrall, Marguerite Snow and Eva Condon

Eva Condon

Bayard Veiller's "When All Has Been Said" will open in New York early in November. A week in Toronto will prepare Miss Emily Stevens, Eugene Ormonde, Charles Balsar, George Woodward, Joseph M. Sparks and Master Thomas
Tobin for the metropolitan occasion.

"Boots and Saddles," the latest drama from the pen of Eugene Walter, will come to the Circle Theatre on November 7, with Miss Charlotte Walker in the leading feminine rôle, for an engagement of two pathy. It was reverential and had sturdy feminine rôle, for an engagement of two

THE SEAGOERS.

The Count de Viel Castel and Lord Gretile Sailing on the Baitic. Sailing to-day by the White Star liner

Baltic, for Queenstown and Liverpool: tapt George B. Beardsley, the Count and untess Pierre de Viel Castel, J. L. Ewing. Stanley Dawson, Mrs S F Deacon, Capt-charles J Fanvel, Lord and Lady Greville, Sir Wilfred and Lady Hepton, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald R W. Murdoch, Sir William E. P. and Lady Priestley, Dr. and Mrs. George C. Sir John and Lady Randles, Alan J. Sykes,

M P A J laylor and C B Wingate. Passengers by the Atlantic transport iner Minnewaska, for London Mr and Mrs David Atkins, Dr.

Sailing by the American liner St. Louis quiry as to where "it" all goes, and the for Plymouth, Cherbourg and South sopratio voice, but her singing last night was marred by a want of clearness in her sonally of the opinion that new extensions

AMELIA BINGHAM SAYS IT-WE ARE MORAL HERE.

This Country is Righteons, She Says, Especially After Seeing England Actresses Aren't as Likely to Be Insuited as Other Women Workers Are.

Many women who aren't club members at al' went to the City Federation convenyesterday afternoon at the New Theatre | sword cut Mr. Sothern on the hand. He | tion at the Hotel Astor yesterday and waited patiently for hours and hours to find out whether Miss Amelia Bingham thought women are responsible for the immoral play

> Many of them were disappointed when Miss Bingham announced that she didn't think there were any immoral plays, or at least not any that lasted more than a

"After years of observation and travel, she continued, "I have come to the conclusion that America is the most moral country on the globe and American women are the best behaved women Belasco whereby following the engage-ment of Helen Ware at the Hudson Thea-tre Mr Belasco will present Blanche Bates in "Nobody's Widow a comedy in three acts by Avery Hopwood. Miss Bates a engagement will begin on Novem-ber 15. actress. Don't intelligent people realize yet that the stage door of our theatres is as difficult to pass as the entrance to the best drawing rooms? Don't they know that the women of reputable companies are protected on trains and in hotels?

STORIES OF AMBROSE BIERCE

degrees, prosecuting attorneys and inquisitive and keen newspaper men had failed to get so much as a hint of "Well," drawled Bierce, "Salvador was something of a connoisseur in the matter of cigarettes, and so am I. I supplied him with good cigarettes and the grateful fellow supplied me with a good human document.

"Do they think a young actress is as "To they think a young actress is as much exposed to insult as the girl who stands behind a counter and must talk to any one who chances to come in and speak to her? Or how about the secretary who is shut up for hours in the private office of her employer, obliged to listen of her employer, obliged to listen is secret. Ambrose Bierce, whose collected works were recently issued by the Neale Publishing Corporate of Washington was for simple desire."

Modest About His War Record—Deadocument.

I fancy that others who tried to get his secrets from Salvador failed to recognize the fact that the highest exhibitions of human gratifude are made in return not for the application of shrewdness or cruelty or even munificent favors but for favors which gratify some great and simple desire." to anything he may choose to say to her or run the risk of losing her position? "Fudge!" ejaculated Miss Bingham. "A girl who seeks temptation can find it at her mother's fireside—she needn't at her mother's fireside she needn't trouble herself to go on the stage. Inci-dentally I may mention that the stage is the only profession in which women can earn more money than men.' The audience, which filled the grand ballroom and spread out into the red vel-vet corridor beyond, applauded these re-marks enthusiastically and the speaker the world? They may sit up late at night, but they sleep in the daytime, and all though they don't go to school when they are very young their education is carefully looked after. They are sent to school between the ages of 12 and 15 because they are of little use on the stage during that period, generally known as the awkward age. during that perio zealous gentlemen any notoriety. I sup-pose, so they leave them alone.

Now I haven't said as much as I in.

Without so much as a reference to the san anterio for a want of clearments in his prevailings and prevailing and three closures and freely the event of the prevent underground flat on large as the evening arbaneous. It is not always to the event of the prevent and the resonance of the event of the prevent and the first of the prevent control of the event of the even

A New Romance of the Forest

Out To-day THE RULES THE GAME

By Stewart Edward White

A romance of the great pine forests of the California Sierras. It has the breath of the open in its pages and it is enthralling in its portrayal of strong men wrestling with the elemental forces of nature. It is a love story whose action and power stir every pulse.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE A COMPANY. Garden City. New York

Modest About His War Record De-

lishing Company of Washington, was for Simple desire."

Bierce liked to have his friends visit years the acknowledged head of the ballroom and spread out into the red velvet corridor beyond, applauded these remarks enthusiastically, and the speaker amiled and took a fling at the Gerry society.

"Why do these men come in and meddle"

"Why do these men come in and meddle"

"Imprompt recognition and high praise in England before American readers gave him those tributes, none but a few of his intimate friends knew that he had served in the war as an officer of engineers with

"Why do these men come in and meddle"

"Imprompt recognition and high praise in England before American readers gave him those tributes, none but a few of his intimate friends knew that he had served in the war as an officer of engineers with

"Why do these men come in and meddle"

"Why do these men come in and meddle"

"Imprompt recognition and high praise in England before American readers gave him those tributes, none but a few of his intimate friends knew that he had served in the war as an officer of engineers with society.

"Why do these men come in and meddle with stage children?" she said, "who are the best dressed and best cared for in the world? They may sit up late at night.

supposed he had read up on his facts and process of the supposed he had read up on his facts and process.

But the Gerry society is always bothering about them, while it totally disregards the poor, half clad little newsboys who shiver on the street corners cold winter nights. These neglected little children are not of sufficient importance to any one to bring these overgoing contlements any notoriety. I support the control of the California National Guard, Bierce control of the California National Guard. tended to about plays, concluded the fact that he had served as an officer actress-manageress, but I want you to understand that you have continually spread before you such a feast of good comedy, tragedy, farce and melodrama that a mere writer of paragraphs and fact that he had served as an officer Jack London Tells of an Maska Poker that a mere writer of paragraphs and scenes in Jack London's latest novel. olden time, which is followed by a ballade and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. Young and Mrs. Bleecker Van Wagener and J. W. When she sat down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan officer of the National Guard. Better that time, writes Longer of the Valuation of the was asked.

There is no good living except in Paris, is the next inspiring sentiment, and this one is followed by another equally touching a language of army matters involved in Tivoli, an Alaska at that time, writes Longer of the National Guard. Better the discussion as was possessed by an officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan of the discussion as was possessed by an officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing the discussion as was possessed by an officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution indorsing Alderman Becker's plan officer of the National Guard. Better the down a woman in a much hobbled velvet frock offered a resolution of the w

California literary colony and decidedly its most interesting character. In some respects he was a man of mystery and contradictions.

Although he wrote many stories of the civil war, stories, by the way, which gained him prompt recognition and high praise in England before American readers gave in England before American readers gave.

"But, madam," drawled Bierce, "you with such impersonality that his reader supposed he had read up on his facts and then treated them with his vivid imagination.

But, imagin, drawied here, yet are not a particular woman."

Bierce has the highest respect for his profession. His library lacks no tool, no reference book his line of work makes desirable, and he uses all such books diligently. He does not believe that good when he enlisted in an Ohio regiment, but his knowledge of engineering, gained in his studies to prepare himself for the profession soon brought him advancement in the Engineering Corps.

One time when some of his writings in the San Francisco Argonaut had brought in him into a warm dispute with an officer in the next twenty days rewrite them and revise them twenty times I will read them

ALL THREE HAD FOURS.

Game With No Cheating to it.

A poker game supplies one of the big stories could not be expected to have such "Burning Daylight". The scene is the that prison.

That sheriff was a Bret Harte type of not one of them called the size of his sheriff, a tall, powerful, fearless chap, with whom Bierce became very chummy.

"Not one of them called the size of his hand. Simultaneously and in silence they faced their cards on the table while symbolical of joy.

"The little play the size of his hand. Simultaneously and in silence they faced their cards on the table while symbolical of joy.

"The little play the size of his hand. Simultaneously and in silence they faced their cards on the table while symbolical of joy.

Just Published The IMPOSTOR The Author of "The Colonel of the Red Huzzars" and other "SIX BEST-SELLERS" ver written a more dashing romance than

HE IMPOSTOR

WITH UNDERWOOD PICTURES IN COLOR OTHER IMMEDIATE SUCCESSES

THE SCALES OF JUSTICE THE LADY OF THE SPUR By GEORGE L. KNAPP. Second Edition Printing and "The Novel of the Year," Will Levington Comfort's

ROUTLEDGE RIDES ALONE. Fourth Edition Just Out

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO. PHILADELPHIA

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF THOMAS COLLIER PLATT

With addenda and edited by Louis J. Lang 8 vo. Cloth-Buckram, Gilt Top, $5.00 net; Full Leather, $10.00 net.

Mr. Platt's book is the most remarkable that has ever appeared in the whole range of American political literature.—The Brooklyn Daily Eagle. A more interesting and instructive volume of political recollections and per-sonal deliverances would scarcely be produced by any contemporary statesman and politician.—The Philadelphia North American.

It is a very important book. It sheds many vivid sidelights on the period which it describes, and will supply much valuable material to historians of the future.—The New York Evening Mail. It is a remarkable book. Great figures move through its pages, statesmen who have made American history during a great half century, and they are shown manœuvring, bargaining and intriguing with and against each other for political power and personal advantage.—The Brooklyn Standard Union.

For sale at all bookstores. B. W. DODGE & COMPANY, Publishers, NEW YORK

Novelist Isham's Way of Making Fletion Lively.

Frederick S. Isham, the Detroit novel- alarm clock-and in New York at that ist, whose latest is always to be found. He was compelled to be in the city well represented among the busy Pullman, ten days in the summer and as he is in readers, is an indefatigable globe trotter habit of writing wherever he happen-things Oriental figure largely in his new to be, and as he was staying at a bore novel, "The Social Bucaneer."

"Has the Oriental a sense of humor?"

Circuit Court

The attorney for the receivers said that the assets would be bought in by a committee of the bondholders, but that he did not know what interests the committee represented.

At the first meeting of the Boston Heroid. Inc. this afternoon. Robert L. O'Brien was elected president and J W Farley, treasure. The stock of the new company will be transferred to a board of trustees in whose hands will rest the control of the company. Among the control of the company Among the control of the company among the onlookers. Daylight picked the including the strength of the size of his sheriff was a Bret Harte type of sheriff was a Bret Harte type of sheriff a tall, powerful, fearless chap, with whom Bierce became very chummy. There is a famous trout stream not far they faced their cards on the table while a general tiptoeing and craning of necks took place among the onlookers. Daylight showed four queens and an ace: Macdonald four jacks and an ace and Macdonald four jacks and an ace and Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The little play that brings 'Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The interpole Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The interpole Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The interpole Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The interpole Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The interpole Karuenjo Theatre when the dance is symbolical of joy.

The interpole Karuenjo Theatre when they faced their cards on the table while a general tiptoeing and craning of necks and an ace.

Macdonald the size of his hand. Simultaneously and in silence they faced thei

BRINGS THE EAST TO THE WEST. An Author's Indifference to Environment Meredith Nicholson wrote part of new novel, "The Siege of the Seven ors," after using the morning birds as a whose windows 'ook down upon (entral Park he did a day's work before to cloc-each morning, the bird chorus in the park each morning, the bird chorus in the learning him at daylight.

Mr. Nicholson learned from his fellow Hoosier Gen. Lew Wallace the trick of writing anywhere. The author of "Beel writing anywhere." hen he told this:

"It happened at Honoiulu, where we re allowed twenty-four hours ashore."

"It happened at Honoiulu, where we writing anywhere. The author of "Ber Hur" and "The Fair God" prided himself on his indifference to environment. With

In particular seasons of the particular control of the particular states of the particular state

INSTRUCTION. Musical.

The National Conservatory of Music